Investing in the Future—Wisconsin Native American Internship Program

Established in 2001, the Wisconsin Tribal Conservation Advisory Council (WTCAC) is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization that provides a forum for the eleven (11) Native American Tribes in Wisconsin to identify and solve natural resource issues on Tribal lands. WTCAC is a Council that gives a voice to Tribes of Wisconsin on conservation issues that are important to the Tribes at both state and national levels.

In 2009 WTCAC established the Wisconsin Native American Student Summer Internship Program for students pursuing degrees in Natural Resources, Biological Sciences, Agriculture, Agricultural Business, Forestry, Civil Engineering and Animal Health and Husbandry. Since then, more than 60 students have participated in WTCAC Internships resulting in placements with Natural Resources Conservation Service, Forest Service (State and Private Forest), Forest Service (National Park and Forest Service) Animal Plant Health Inspection Service (Veterinary Services and PPQ) Animal Health Inspection Service (Wildlife Services) Risk Management, as well as Tribal placements in Wisconsin, Michigan, and Minnesota.

This year, we are excited to announce a new partnership with the University of Wisconsin Extension and Lake Superior National Estuarine Research Reserve!
